BUDGET EXPOUNDED.

BY MR. H. H. ASQUITH.

REJECTION MEANS REVOLUTION.

THE CABINET PREPARED.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Mr. H. H. Asquith, Prime Minister, addressed 10,000 people in the Bingley Hall, Birmingham, yesterday. He had a tumultuous welcome.

Mr. Asquith likened the sensations of a reader of Lord Rosebery's speech at Glasgow to those of an over-sanguine explorer who, having battled across the parallels of life and fog, reaches the North Pole, only to find nothing there except that the points of the compass have for the moment lost their meaning.

Mr. Asquith emphasised that the present gathering meant to declare a fixed resolve first, that the interests of State should be met by an equitable distribution of a nation's wealth; secondly, that the freshly-elected representatives of the people have the final voice in settling both the measure and incidence of the burden.

SHARING THE BURDENS.

After summarising the proposals of the so-called revolutionary Budget, Mr. Asquith said that the working classes as a body did not complain of their share of the additional contribution to the acknowledged necessities of the State. The bulk of the well-to-do citizens were just as ready as their less fortunate fellow-subjects to play their part, and do a fair share of patriotic duty in meeting the needs of the State.

Whatever might happen in the hurly-burly of politics, nothing could disturb the personal affection which existed between Lord Rosebery and himself. Lord Rosebery had bewailed his hard fate, and expected the services rendered by the owner of agricultural land. But the land taxes of the Budget did not touch agricultural land. Its proposals for increasing deductions under schedule A left the owner of agricultural land better off than now.

What was the proposal? Merely a tax on land values, created by the social development of the country. Lord Rosebery himself, while Prime Minister, advocated the taxation of ground values. He agreed with Lord Rosebery that the Government was making a new departure as regards land. The departure was that, for the first time principles, the justice of which was admitted by every impartial man who studied the subject, had been recognised and acted upon by a responsible government.

NO DEPLETION OF CAPITAL.

Lord Rosebery had discovered in inescapable duties an intention to wage impious war against capital. The same epithets were used against the Succession Duty Act, passed by Mr. Gladstone, and had been falsified by the event. The taxes were a very moderate toll. Regarding the alleged depletion and so-called exploitation of national capital, Mr. Asquith contended that money taken in the shape of death duties did not disappear. It went in sanitation, national defence, the preservation of order, and those great schemes of social reform on which Liberalism were bent.

Nobody could say that capital so applied was not being remuneratively employed as if left in the pocket of the present owners, and transmitted to their children.

INEFFECTIVE ALTERNATIVES.

What was the alternative offered by Lord Rosebery? asked Mr. Asquith. Beyond a few singularly infertile generalities, Lord Rosebery had nothing to tell.

Tariff reformers were grateful for the aid of Lord Rosebery; but they disdained their disappointment at his tame and impotent conclusions. They felt it was all very well to abuse the Budget and its authors. "But," Mr. Asquith continued, "neither nations nor individuals can live on a diet of blood and thunder. You cannot all sit idly by denunciation."

Proceeding to argue that tariff reform would prove no practical alternative to the Budget as a revenue-producing scheme, Mr. Asquith remarked that, if any such alternative policy existed, it ought to come out in the open. Mr. Balfour, on his last visit to Birmingham, administered to long-suffering tariff-reformers a dose of soothing syrup, which had kept them more or less quiet.

OLD AGE PENSIONS.

The Westfalen was designed for a displacement of 17,675 tons on a draught of 26 feet.

COST IN UNITED KINGDOM.

LARGE IRISH FIGURES.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—When the steamer Umhall went ashore on Cape Point while bound from London to Port Natal the weather was calm, and there was a little fog.

Forty-seven passengers, many of whom were in night attire, assembled on deck, and believing the vessel was sinking sang the hymn, "External Father Strong to Save."

The first boat launched, containing 13 passengers, capsized. All scrambled back except a baby.

The other boats headed seaward. The Lascars refused to row.

The passengers and crew bailed the water from the boats with boots, hats, and bucket tins.

The disaster has increased the demand for a lighthouse on Slangkop Point.

FIRST GERMAN DREADNOUGHT.

MISTAKEN CALCULATIONS.

UNABLE TO REACH THE SEA.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The Berlin correspondent of the "Daily Chronicle" writes that owing to a mistake in calculating the displacement of the Westfalen, Germany's first Dreadnaught, she is unable to steam down the Weser to the North Sea. The Westfalen returned to Bremen, where it will probably be necessary to discharge her armaments before she can reach the sea.

The Westfalen was designed for a displacement of 17,675 tons on a draught of 26 feet.

OLD AGE PENSIONS.

The Westfalen was designed for a displacement of 17,675 tons on a draught of 26 feet.

COST IN UNITED KINGDOM.

LARGE IRISH FIGURES.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Mr. Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, speaking in the House of Commons, in reply to Mr. F. W. Verney (Liberal), said the cost of old-age pensions for January 1 and September 2 had been—England and Wales, £3,270,000; Ireland, £1,541,000; and Scotland, £2,903,000.

The number of pensioners—England and Wales, 410,000; Ireland, 184,000; and Scotland, 73,000.

These pensioners in proportion to population were—England and Wales, 11 per 1000; Ireland, 42 per 1000; Scotland, 15 per 1000.

On the first granting of old-age pensions there was one pensioner for every 85 inhabitants in England, and one for every 25 in Ireland. It was explained that on account of migration the number of pensioners was out of all proportion to the population.

THE WAR IN MOROCCO.

SPANISH EDITOR ARRESTED.

COMMENTS TOO FREE.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The editor of the Madrid Conservative paper, "Correspondencia," was arrested after his return from Melilla, Morocco, for stating that the Spanish troops were brave, but disorganised, that the food was bad and the water mostly stagnant; also that the Spanish victories were insignificant, and many wounded troopers had to lie on the hospital floors without blankets.

SUFFRAGIST DISTURBANCES.

PREVENTING WOMEN'S INVASION.

Elaborate precautions were made to prevent women suffragists invading the meeting. At the railway station there were barriers, and Mr. Asquith took a secret passage from the station to his hotel.

There were numerous suffragist disturbances, and several arrests were made in the streets. Male champions of woman suffrage interrupted Mr. Asquith's speech, and several were ejected from the meeting.

CRITICISMS OF THE PRESS.

LIBERALS WILL LIMIT VETO.

The "Daily Chronicle" (Liberal) affirms that the main thesis of Mr. Asquith was the Budget, not the revolution which its rejection by the Lords would be.

The "Daily News" (Liberal) writes that Liberals are prepared to take advantage of the revolution which the rejection of the Budget by the Lords would mean, by limiting the hereditary right of veto, and so remove the greatest stumbling block in the path of national advancement.

BELITTLED BY CONSERVATIVES.

THE RIGHTS OF THE LORDS.

The "Times" (Conservative), writes that the defence of the Budget by Mr. Asquith was inconclusive and almost trivial. The led.

Opposition to the Budget was provoked far less by what it takes than the way of taking, and the awry of intention and design by Mr. Asquith's colleagues. These aways he always carefully ignores, and we can easily believe that they are far from commanding his personal approval. Mr. Asquith must be well aware that the right of the Lords to reject the Budget is beyond question.

The "Daily Mail" (Conservative) writes that the speech was humdrum, and quotes the statement by Sir Frayne May in his work on Parliamentary practice of the legal right of the Lords to withhold assent from any bill of which they disapprove.

The "Daily Telegraph" (Unionist) says that the speech was quite futile as an effort to coerce the Lords.

FOR LAND VALUATION.

PETITION FROM BUSINESS MEN.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Lord Swinburne, Mr. Arthur Chamberlain, Sir Charles MacLaren, M.P., Sir John Brunner, M.P., Mr. George Cadbury (Cadbury Brothers), and 53 other business men have signed a statement in favour of the valuation of land, considering as they do that a new basis of assessment is necessary to secure relief from growing rates.

SUPREMACY AT SEA.

THE EMPIRE'S FOUNDATION.

LORD C. BERESFORD EXPLAINS AT NEW YORK.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Admiral Lord Charles Beresford was the guest of honour at the luncheon given by the Pilgrim's Club in New York.

Referring to the European situation, Lord Charles Beresford said: "The outlook is dark. Supremacy at sea is a matter of life or death to the Empire, but the measures which are being taken for defence do not mean aggression, but merely a determination to hold what we have."

"What we want is to prevent war, to be strong that nobody will attack us. Why should not the English-speaking nations get together and say, 'There shall not be war.'

LOSS OF THE UMHALL.

H.Z. AND A.L. COMPANY.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The New Zealand and Australian Land Company, in its report, recommends the payment of a dividend of 7 per cent. and bonus of 5 per cent. A sum of £185,000 is added to the reserve. Directors propose to increase the ordinary stocks to £1,000,000 by the capitalisation of the reserve fund.

A CHALLENGE TO THE LORDS.

The important part of Mr. Asquith's speech was reserved for the last five minutes. It was a direct challenge to the House of Lords.

Speaking solemnly and slowly, Mr. Asquith declared that if the Lords destroyed the Budget, whether by mutilation or rejection, that indeed would be the most formidable revolution since the Long Parliament.

Mr. Asquith added: "It was settled long ago that the Commons had the absolute unquestionable and decisive voice in matters of finance, in which the Lords are impotent and the Commons supreme. If that issue is raised," he impressively said, "that may well revolutionise. It would involve issues far wider and deeper than the rights of the Lords to meddle in finance, but if it is raised the Liberal party will be anxious and eager to accept the challenge."

Both are dead. Mrs. Tripp had 16 wounds. Mrs. Silvers committed suicide.

POLAR DOUBTS.

COMMANDER PEARY'S REGRETS.

FOR SOLITARY JOURNEY.

ALLEGATIONS AGAINST DR. COOK.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Commander Peary, in the course of an interview, said that he regretted that he did not meet Captain Bartlett with him to the North Pole, though he had the scientific world and the general public will implicitly accept his statement, that he really reached the Pole.

Commander Peary added that Mr. Whiting, who was in Greenland, told him in August that Dr. Cook claimed to have reached the Pole. The Eskimos who had been with Dr. Cook, at Etah, Commander Peary obtained statements and rough drawings from them, showing that Dr. Cook took only two marches over the Polar ice.

NO SOUTHERN EXPEDITION.

A FANTASTIC THEORY.

FIGHTING THE RAILWAYS.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—The "Spectator" endeavours to furnish a reason for the proposed motor roads under the Development Bill by representing that Mr. Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, desires to nationalise the railways. He hopes, the "Spectator" affirms, ultimately to secure that end by encouraging motor traffic to compete with the railways, and thus lessen the value of the latter, and thereby induce shareholders to sell at an easy figure.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The New Zealand and Australian Land Company, in its report, recommends the payment of a dividend of 7 per cent. and bonus of 5 per cent. A sum of £185,000 is added to the reserve. Directors propose to increase the ordinary stocks to £1,000,000 by the capitalisation of the reserve fund.

FINANCIAL.

BORROWING POLICY CRITICIZED. It would be becoming fashionable for German and other Continental professors to investigate the commercial conditions of Australia and then publish their views. Dr. Robert Schuchardt, of Berlin, has done so, and has been writing of this order. After a sojourn extending over a year and nine months in our midst, he has published under the title of "Australia." In his opinion, the professor says that he is a strong believer in the future of this country. He does not, however, believe in our loan policy. It is the loan policy, he says, which has created debts and distinctions between its debts according to which they were incurred, or what were incurred. For instance, debts have been made to the State Government, and that is the reason that the market will open well for the new season's Australian Stock of butter from your side and now practically exhausted."

COMPLAINTS OF BUTTER QUALITY.

On the above subject Messrs. Weddell and Co. state that the year just closed was the best ever for the quality of the butter received from either Australia or New Zealand. On the contrary, there have been widespread complaints concerning the butter produced in New Zealand, and no doubt these were somewhat exaggerated by the condition of the market. Traders who had bought forward at very high prices—so high that they established a record—had been led to examine their goods in a more critical spirit than if the enterprise had been profitable. These "market" enterprises were "fishiness" and excessive豪華，and it is evident that both manufacturers and importers had complete control, and it becomes every butter factory in Australia and New Zealand to take drastic measures to prevent the legal limit of 16 per cent. being exceeded, as well as to prevent butter being sold in a good many cases. So long as the moisture is kept below the legal limit in this country no just complaint can be made by the butter industry against the export restriction. The second of the demands of the butter manufacturers is that a further reduction in the price of butter should be made available to the State Government, and that a fund for the work should be formed out of the proceeds of the alienation of the State lands, this, however, was not acted upon to any important extent. Considering the professor's remarks:

For a long time the wealth of the country mocked those simple methods of finance, until finally, just at the time when the world was beginning to demand to comply with Australia's increasing demand for money. That had the effect of moderating the rate of interest, and the result was that Victoria only borrowed on an average £71,000 per month, while New South Wales from August, 1908, to April, 1909, borrowed £1,000,000. This sum at the present day is burdened with a far higher rate of interest than any European bank.

FOREIGN TRADE RETURNS. In the following table the monthly returns recently issued by the Board of Trade in respect of the trade of certain foreign countries, that is, British trade returns for the first five months of the year, were not up to date, and that of the remaining four months was considerably better than the previous figure. The comparative figures of the five months for the four countries whose returns are available are as follows:—

Country	Imports (months)	Exports (five months)
United Kingdom	21,000,000	7,000,000
United States	50,000,000	47,500,000
Canada	100,000,000	50,000,000
Cuba	100,000,000	50,000,000
Total	321,000,000	125,500,000

It will be noticed that France makes the most consistent showing with a general advance both in imports and exports, while the United States exhibits a heavy falling off in exports. In regard to British foreign trade, more recent figures are rather more hope-

DUNLOP RUBBER COMPANY OF AUSTRALASIA. The above company has declared a dividend for the half-year at the same rate as the interim dividend paid in April. On the cumulative preference shares, 100 per cent. on the capital, the fully paid deferred non-cumulative preference shares 10 per cent. and on the ordinary shares 1 per cent. In addition, the directors have declared both cumulative preference and non-cumulative preference shares. For 1909-10 the dividend on the cumulative preference and ordinary shares was at the rate of 15 per cent. On the other hand, the preference shareholders have preference shares at the rate of 9 per cent. Therefore, in addition to the bonus of 16 per cent. now declared, the rate of dividend on the cumulative preference and the deferred non-cumulative preference shares has been increased by 1 per cent.

GOLDSBROUGH, MORT, AND CO., LTD. Says the "Argus" of London: "Twelve months ago Goldsbrough, Mort, and Co.'s share price stood at 10/-; yesterday, they touch 35/-." The increase in value is the more noticeable because of the very large number of shares held by the public, and the result is some little time since over 4,000 shares had disposed. Selling was again in full swing, and the selling was skillfully conducted, and as the selling was conducted price was forced ahead to above 30/- before the last products branch the better tone observed a month ago has been fully maintained. Subsequent to the fall in motor cars, the market believes that the market will soon fall, and makers will only sell forward where they can get an advance on spot prices. Heavy alkalies are moving steadily in the home market, and a better position is to be expected during January-June this year showing a considerable increase on those in the first six months of 1908.

THE ENGLISH BROWN COAL INDUSTRY. The year 1908 has been a very favourable one for the English brown coal industry. The 19 companies engaging in brown coal mining, with a total of more than £200,000,000, declared dividends, aggregating £286,000, equal to 14 per cent. on the capital. The profits were much larger than the previous year. Of this number, 12 were motor car and motor van manufacturers. There was a relatively larger increase in motor cars than in motor cycles. Of the total number of motor cars 23.3 per cent. were up to 8.1 per cent. from 6.9 per cent. on 8-h.p. to 16-h.p., and 9.1 per cent. from 16-h.p. to 40-h.p.

CHEMICALS. Messrs. S. W. Royce and Co., in their Manchester circular of July 20, testifies to the great success of their business. The market for twelve months ago Goldsbrough, Mort, and Co.'s share price stood at 10/-; yesterday, they touch 35/-." The increase in value is the more noticeable because of the very large number of shares held by the public, and the result is some little time since over 4,000 shares had disposed. INTERSTATE EXCHANGES. MELBOURNE, Saturday. Total sales were—Victoria, 3 cents.; Queensland, 2 cents.; Tasmania, 1 cent.; Western Australia, 20c.; South Australia, 10c.; Victoria, 10c.; Melbourne Trust, 7½; Carlton Brewery, 7½; Swan River, 1 cent.; Bendigo, 1 cent.; Geelong, 1 cent.; Ballarat, 1 cent.; Geelong, 1 cent.; Hobart, 1 cent.; Tasmania, 1 cent.

NOTES AND SALES. It is reported that Canada has decided to adopt a monetary system of United States currency, which, during recent years, has found its way into the Dominion. The sum involved is variously estimated, but it is probably not far short of $40,000,000, and were the notes to be silvered in the country of its origin there would be a great accession of industry in the silver mining industry in Canada, while the Government might well have more scope for its energies.

COMMERCIAL.

THE MARKETS. The wheat market on spot underwent no change on Saturday. Only nominal business was done. Private cables indicated a firm though quiet market in London, buyers apparently waiting for settled conditions before operating with any freedom. The business was also quiet in Melbourne, and in the London market mutton and lamb had had a further advance, although beef is slightly lower.

THE BUTTER MARKET. Prescott, Ltd., reported on Saturday:—"It has been possible to maintain the market at 12/- this week, owing to the non-arrival of some of the northern steamers, which have been bar-bound at the Richmond River, but as the market is quiet, we are not likely to see a further rise. Monday, we anticipate a reduction in price. Second and third classes are saleable at 10/- and 9/- per lb. respectively. The market is still quiet, and buyers are being made to give up their demands. The market is quiet, and buyers are showing a great desire. There is no change to report in Adelaide prices. Milled dairy is being sold at 9/- to 10/- per lb. by local manufacturers. Our Wellington, 12/- per lb. is firm. The market is quiet, and buyers are showing a great desire. As far as we have, there is very little new to report, as both factories and merchants are marking time. In reference to purchases, we have been advised to pay 11/-, but buyers are not inclined to give up 10/- per lb. We have been advised that 10/- was offered. Generally speaking, 10/- to 11/- appears to be the limit. Some factories have arranged to sell at 10/- per lb. on a cash guarantee without recourse. We notice, at this time of the year, London advises point to a market of 12/-, but from previous experience we have always found that a certain degree have these considerations made it difficult of inducing continued business. As against this, we have a largely increased output from the whole of the Australian States and New South Wales, and if buyers are prepared to operate on a basis of over 11/- per first-grade we should recommend factories quoted 10/- higher on the week, at 12/- for raw, and 11/- for double-baled.

METALS.

LONDON, Sept. 18, 4.00 a.m.

Yesterday's closing quotations were:—

Copper, spot, £25/10s/8d; £26/9s/8d (10/- higher); three months, £25/10s/8d, £26/9s/8d (10/- higher); electric, £26 (5/- higher).

Lead, soft, £12/12s/6d, £12/12s/6d (6/- higher); three months, £12/12s/6d, £12/12s/6d (6/- higher).

Lead, soft, foreign, £12/12s/6d, £12/12s/6d (1/- lower).

LONDON HIDE AND LEATHERS.

Wineholt, London, and Co. cable read:—"Prices are still pre to buy, but are unchanged, but market closed strong. Hides are firm, being occasionally a farthing per lb. higher."

PRODUCE MARKETS.

The cotton market has been prevented by a very severe fall in the dullness which has been existing. All lines were generally depressed, and showed no indication in the market, and the price of cotton for July was less than the price of cotton for June.

The importers down town have been doing a good deal of business, and the imports increased by 41.85 per cent. Reporting from London on August 1, Dalgety said:—"The (home) production should not fall on Monday, being the price of cotton for July was less than the price of cotton for June.

THE TURF.

The postponed meeting of the New South Wales Trotting Club takes place this afternoon on the Epping Racecourse. Visitors can travel by the Belmont, Lilyfield, and Drummoyne trains. The Green Street, which stop at the racecourse gates. The first race is timed to start at 2.30 p.m.

The weights for the Hawkesbury Spring meetings are given for the following:

Nominalis for the 1st race of the Wollongong Jockey Club on the 30th inst will be received up to 4 p.m. to-day by the secretary.

Mr. Denmeade, at the office of the Warwick Hotel, 10, George-street, city, and the same hour by Mr. J. A. Studd at Wollongong.

The prize money aggregates £125.

The majority of the half-score that faced the battlers in the Hunter Races at Rosenthal Station were at the start, and the only a couple of them having scored over the light timber.

The Grafton gelding Arturias was sent out a warm favourite, while the others going to the post were Vassaros, Varos, and Arturias, who was awarded his main dangerous opponent, lengthy prices being placed about the others.

The first start was brought about under the judge's boxes to the finish.

No fewer than 25 took the track for the Hunter-Maitland at Rosenthal, and, as far as Yester Astor took charge after the first half-mile had been covered, and, escorted by Standard, he held his place to the distance. Here he began to tire, and Standard, cutting in at the last point, won the race from the others.

Arturias, who in the earlier stages had been kept too far from the leaders, and had made up a deal of ground in the last half-mile, The winner, who was by Standard, from the start, has succeeded in the race at northern district meetings, but this was his first victory over the stakes. He is a stable mate of Horrocks and Black Reynard, and is trained by E. L. Jackson.

The Totalbred Keaton, by Medallion from the Segheen mare Salvation, won the High-weight Handicap at Coolgardie (W.A.) on Saturday, after a hard round of goldfields racing throughout the day.

Though Kuringal showed consistent form as a two-year-old by frequently running into minor places, she failed to carry her owner's confidence at the start, and, after a hard battle, was only by a short half-head that he gained the day from Silvery Port. F. Burne rode Silvery Port with all his cleverness, and had the horse jumped moderately well all day would have won. She lost ground at nearly every hurdle.

MELBOURNE, Sunday. Philip Worth, who is engaged in the two races at the A.J.C. Spring Meeting, will not make the trials for the 1st race in a good position from the start, and, after a hard battle, was only by a short half-head that he gained the day from Silvery Port. F. Burne rode Silvery Port with all his cleverness, and had the horse jumped moderately well all day would have won. She lost ground at nearly every hurdle.

MELBOURNE RACING CLUB. The weather prospects for the Spring meeting, which will probably go to Sydney for the A.J.C. Spring Meeting, was the hurdle race at Flemington yesterday morning, second victory on the card. The race was only by a short half-head that he gained the day from Silvery Port. F. Burne rode Silvery Port with all his cleverness, and had the horse jumped moderately well all day would have won. She lost ground at nearly every hurdle.

DERBY CANDIDATE SUCCESSFUL. GOLDEN SLIPPER WINS CAMELLIA STAKES

VASSAR THE ROSEHILL HANDICAP. MALOTE DESTROYED.

The weather prospects for the Spring meeting of the Rosehill Racing Club were anything but promising, and, as far as the race for the racecourse a heavy "snow mist" was evident, but after passing Strathfield it became evident that the rain was of the coastal variety, and the very heavy downpours experienced in the city for a considerable period had extended inland beyond that point.

On arrival at Rosehill that idea was wiped out by the excellent state of the track and the surroundings, and time was negotiated during the afternoon. Horses in the 3 to 1 heat and the 100/- money came in for the imported horse Son of the Marsh, Lady San (a stable mate of Kuringal), Maltese, and the Victoria's representative, Bright Steel, the latter having come in from the start, and, with the equine talents engaged, the sport was of a highly interesting character, and the form shown foreshadowed high-class contests at the coming Randwick carnival.

The race was over in a minute, and, though the favourite cut her down and scored handsomely, while Mr. Foy's Orril colt Nuwara Eliya secured third place. The winner, who is trained by Mr. J. A. Studd, and is a son of the imported stallion, was a good colt, and imported horses, and the Victoria's representative, Bright Steel, the latter having come in from the start, and, with the equine talents engaged, the sport was of a highly interesting character, and the form shown foreshadowed high-class contests at the coming Randwick carnival.

Mr. Adrian Knows, chairman of the A.J.C., who has just returned from a visit to England, was among the visitors at Rosehill on Saturday.

The hitherto disappointing mare Golden Slipper, who had her first win at Australian steeplechase meetings, and was fully anticipated, for she was sent out at the head of the quotations in a field of 17 for the Camellia Stakes, ran over seven furlongs at Flemington, and, though the race was only by a short half-head that he gained the day from Silvery Port. F. Burne rode Silvery Port with all his cleverness, and had the horse jumped moderately well all day would have won. She lost ground at nearly every hurdle.

Mr. Adrian Knows, chairman of the A.J.C., who has just returned from a visit to England, was among the visitors at Rosehill on Saturday.

The hitherto disappointing mare Golden Slipper, who had her first win at Australian steeplechase meetings, and was fully anticipated, for she was sent out at the head of the quotations in a field of 17 for the Camellia Stakes, ran over seven furlongs at Flemington, and, though the race was only by a short half-head that he gained the day from Silvery Port. F. Burne rode Silvery Port with all his cleverness, and had the horse jumped moderately well all day would have won. She lost ground at nearly every hurdle.

ROSEHILL HANDICAP. MALOTE DESTROYED.

The weather prospects for the Spring meeting of the Rosehill Racing Club were anything but promising, and, as far as the race for the racecourse a heavy "snow mist" was evident, but after passing Strathfield it became evident that the rain was of the coastal variety, and the very heavy downpours experienced in the city for a considerable period had extended inland beyond that point.

On arrival at Rosehill that idea was wiped out by the excellent state of the track and the surroundings, and time was negotiated during the afternoon. Horses in the 3 to 1 heat and the 100/- money came in for the imported horse Son of the Marsh, Lady San (a stable mate of Kuringal), Maltese, and the Victoria's representative, Bright Steel, the latter having come in from the start, and, with the equine talents engaged, the sport was of a highly interesting character, and the form shown foreshadowed high-class contests at the coming Randwick carnival.

The race was over in a minute, and, though the favourite cut her down and scored handsomely, while Mr. Foy's Orril colt Nuwara Eliya secured third place. The winner, who is trained by Mr. J. A. Studd, and is a son of the imported stallion, was a good colt, and imported horses, and the Victoria's representative, Bright Steel, the latter having come in from the start, and, with the equine talents engaged, the sport was of a highly interesting character, and the form shown foreshadowed high-class contests at the coming Randwick carnival.
